on a Lateral Flow Device (LFD) What to do if a pupil/student tests positive for COVID-19 on an LFD test, what do I do

1. Record details

- Ensure any details of the pupil / to protect their privacy. student are recorded securely
- confirmatory PCR test They will need to do a to be collected if needed student, being mindful of talk with the pupil or Find a quiet space to distancing/PPE the need for social confirmatory PCR test Tell them they should take a and arrange for the pupil or student Call their parent or legal guardian

2. Contact parent / legal guardian

5. Reminder to share result of PCR test

0

/or their parent/carer to let Before they go, remind them and be told via text/email) result of the PCR test (they will school/college know about the chance to reassure them:

For most people, symptoms will last and impact on their family. This is a They may be anxious about their health

There is support available with up to 10 days and be mild. their parents with work and benefits earning from home and support for

4. Offer support

Signpost to other advice:

Support if you're off work while self-

If you're worried about your health, visit isolating: https://bit.ly/isolatesupport https://www.nhs.uk/ or call 111.

Printable action list for schools/colleges for children with symptoms

Remote learning advice:

https://bit.ly/covidhomelearning friends and family and defeat th doing their bit to protect their

They can take pride that they are student, pupil or staff member begins displaying symptoms they must follow government guidelines, order a PCR test and self-isolate IMPORTANT: If, at any point, a

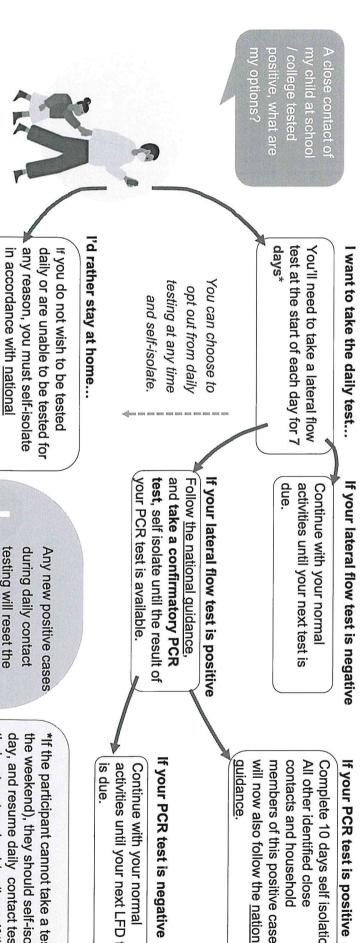

Test and Trace

A new approach to close contacts – 'daily contact testing'* Printable guidance for Schools and Colleges someone who has tested positive for COVID-19 to return to school/college. If they agree to be tested asymptomatic cases. This will allow those (pupils/students and staff) who are in close contact with A new approach known as 'daily contact testing' has been developed to help find more for 7 days* following their last contact with a positive case.

displaying symptoms they must follow student, pupil or staff member begins government guidelines, order a PCR IMPORTANT: If, at any point, a est and self-isolate will now also follow the national Complete 10 days self isolation.

activities until your next LFD test contact testing (daily clock for the daily testing will reset the testing) to the start of 7 tested positive

last contact with the person who guidance until 10 days after the taken 7 tests in total). period is complete (even if they have not should take one test to complete the selfafter the 7 days are finished, then they their return to school / college. If they return day, and resume daily contact testing on return to school/college and their testing isolation period, and if it is negative they can the weekend), they should self-isolate for that *If the participant cannot take a test (e.g. on